

Anti-Advertising and Unsolicited Email Policy

Commitment Against Unsolicited Advertising

AA Euro Group is committed to responsible email communication and does not permit the use of unsolicited advertising, spam, or unauthorised promotional emails to market our services, website, or business activities.

AA Euro Group prohibits its employees, representatives, affiliates, contractors, partners, vendors, and any third parties acting on its behalf from sending unsolicited commercial email messages or engaging in email practices that may be considered spam.

Acceptable Email Communications

Emails sent by AA Euro Group are intended only for legitimate business purposes, including:

- responding to enquiries;
- communicating with existing clients, candidates, suppliers, or business contacts;
- providing information about services where there is an appropriate relationship or lawful basis for communication.

All marketing communications sent by AA Euro Group will comply with applicable data protection and electronic communications requirements, including providing appropriate options for recipients to unsubscribe or opt out where required.

Prohibited Activities

The following activities are prohibited:

- sending bulk unsolicited promotional emails;
- purchasing, selling, or using email lists obtained without appropriate consent or lawful basis;
- using third-party systems or vendors to distribute unauthorised advertisements on behalf of AA Euro Group;
- misleading email headers, sender information, or subject lines;
- harvesting email addresses from websites or other sources for unsolicited marketing purposes.
- Third-Party Responsibility

AA Euro Group requires all suppliers, affiliates, partners, and service providers who communicate on our behalf to follow this policy and comply with applicable anti-spam and data protection laws.

Any third party found to be sending unsolicited advertising or spam on behalf of AA Euro Group may have their relationship with the company reviewed or terminated.

Reporting Unwanted Emails

If you believe you have received an unsolicited email claiming to be from AA Euro Group, please contact us so that we can investigate the matter.

AA Euro Group is committed to maintaining responsible email practices and protecting the reputation of our domain and the trust of our clients, candidates, and business partners.